Disclaimer and Required Verification

Contributions are not deductible for Federal income tax purposes. Federal election law requires political committees to use best efforts to report the name, mailing address, occupation, and name of employer of individuals whose contributions exceed $200 during an election cycle. An individual may not contribute more than $2300 for the primary election and $2300 for the general election i.e. a total of $4600 to the committee. Federal law prohibits contributions to the committee from the general treasury funds of a corporation, labor organization or national bank (including corporate or other business entity credit cards), from any person contributing another's funds, from a Federal government contractor, or from a foreign national who lacks permanent resident status.
